You all ran so very well today, according to plan. Strong, working as a team and impressing all who were there. With our goal of a strong post season, you are well on the way to having just that!

More than one of you benefitted from having Kellie bellow (!) encouragement at you as she ran. It's no easy to put it all out there in a race, and to still make sure she cheered on her teammates is really Holding the Rope! Class act, Kellie!
