

BALTIMORE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS
TOWSON, MARYLAND 21204

April 23, 2002

SABBATICAL LEAVES - Effective July 1, 2002

RENEE BAYLIN – Carver Center for Arts and Technology

Years in Baltimore County: 6.0 years

Degree Status: BS

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to pursue a master's degree in Fine Arts at Towson University

JONATHAN T. BRICE – Randallstown High School

Years in Baltimore County: 7.6 years

Degree Status: MS

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to pursue a doctoral in Administration, Planning, and Social Policy
Urban Superintendency Concentration at Harvard University

ANTHONY R. DICAPUA – Special Education Office

Years in Baltimore County: 18.0 years

Degree Status: M+30

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to complete a master's degree in Kinesiology with a specialization in Adapted Physical Education at the Texas Women's University

BRIAN C. MORRISON – Randallston High School

Years in Baltimore County: 11.0 years

Degree Status: M+60

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to complete doctoral degree in History at Morgan State University

JANET SCHILL – Seventh District Elementary School

Years in Baltimore County: 13.0 years

Degree: MS

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to pursue a graduate program in Reading at Loyola College

CHRISTINA SUNDVALL – Sudbrook Magnet Middle School

Years in Baltimore County: 8.0 years

Degree: MS

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to pursue a Master of Fine Arts in Studio Art at the Maryland
Institute College of Art

MARIANNE L. THOMAS – Dundalk High School

Years in Baltimore County: 10.7 years

Degree Status: M+60

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to complete Maryland State certification in English for Speakers of other Languages (ESOL), through an approved Program of Study at the College of Notre Dame.

BETSY S. WHIPPS – Hebbville Elementary School

Years in Baltimore County: 13.8 years

Degree Status: M+30

Effective School Year: 2002-2003; to complete Masters of Education with a concentration in Reading/Reading Language Arts at Loyola College.

These sabbatical leaves are contingent upon funding.