Assignment to Special Education Programs: Impartial Due Process Hearing Procedures

The Baltimore County Board of Education assures that handicapped children and their parents or guardians, who are residents of Baltimore County, are guaranteed procedural safeguards with respect to a free appropriate public education.

Parents will have an opportunity for an impartial “due process” hearing conducted by a certified independent hearing officer who is not an employee of the Baltimore County Public Schools. At the hearing, both the parents and representatives of the Baltimore County Public Schools shall have the opportunity to present evidence and testimony. Approved procedures for the initiation and conduct of the hearing which meet the legal requirements will be distributed to parents seeking such action.

A parent of a handicapped child or the Baltimore County Public Schools may initiate a hearing to review the proposal of the Baltimore County Public Schools or the refusal of the Baltimore County Public Schools to initiate or change:

1. the identification
2. the evaluation
3. the educational placement of the child; or
4. the provision of a free, appropriate education to the child.
