BCPS to distribute meals to students on Dec. 21, then resume service on Jan. 4 following winter break

County government to distribute meals on Dec. 28, resume Saturday distributions on Jan. 2

TOWSON, MD. – Prior to suspending meal distributions to students during winter break, Baltimore County Public Schools will distribute three days' worth of free meals to students on Monday, Dec. 21, at 300 community locations, including all middle and high schools.

The BCPS Office of Food and Nutrition Services will close for winter break from Tuesday, Dec. 22, through Jan. 3 before resuming its regular Monday and Wednesday meal distribution schedule on Monday, Jan. 4.

Baltimore County government, which has been distributing meals on Saturday, will not distribute meals on Saturday, Dec. 26; however, it will share meals on Monday, Dec. 28, starting at 10 a.m. County government will resume its regular Saturday meal distribution on Saturday, Jan. 2.

For families needing additional assistance during the winter holiday season, Baltimore County government has shared a list of area food pantries. Families are encouraged to contact the food pantries for updates on food availability before visiting them.
