Mechanical Construction-Plumbing

This program prepares students to install and maintain water supply systems, waste removal systems, and various fixtures and gas appliances that provide for personal comfort in the home or commercial business setting.

Program Skills & Certifications

- Provides as close to an on-the-job situation as possible
- Residential plumbing
- Successful completion leads to entry-level employment opportunities, official completion of the first-year plumbing apprenticeship with the Associated Builders and Contractors of Greater Baltimore (ABC), and preparation for future educational endeavors including colleges and universities
- Make various pipe joints

Program Information

Upon successful completion of Western Tech’s Mechanical Construction-Plumbing Program, students will receive credit for year one of the four-year Associated Builders and Contractors of Greater Baltimore Plumbing Apprenticeship Program.

Articulation with CCBC

Students who complete the Mechanical Construction program and the Associated Builders and Contractors Plumbing Apprenticeship program will be eligible for six articulated credits at CCBC.